Name:

Physical Adaptations

Complete the chart. Think about how the physical features of an animal helps it to survive in its environment.

|                                    |                                    | 200                              |
|------------------------------------|------------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| PhysicalAdaptation             | How is it helpfulfor survival? | Which animals have this feature? |
| sharp claws                        |                                    |                                  |
| sharp teeth                        |                                    |                                  |
| long neck                          |                                    |                                  |
| spotted fur                        |                                    |                                  |
| white fur                          |                                    |                                  |
| colorful feathers                  |                                    |                                  |
| webbed feet                        |                                    |                                  |
| scales                             |                                    |                                  |
| long tail                          |                                    |                                  |
| wings                              |                                    |                                  |
| antennae                           |                                    |                                  |
| Think of another physical feature. |                                    |                                  |